SAMPLE ASSIGNMENT

QC's step-by-step program will take you through every aspect of the event decorating process. The course assignments are designed to put you into the decorator role, in real-world scenarios that develop your creative and organizational skills as a professional event decorator.

Unit B Assignment 1 - Choosing Flowers

Flowers and floral arrangement are fixtures at many special events. Although they can be expensive and are short-lived, they add touches of natural beauty to events that many clients consider indispensable. In this assignment, you'll practice providing flower recommendations based on client scenarios.

For each scenario, you'll develop a board on Pinterest showing the flowers you'd recommend. You can include as many images on each board as you want, but remember to keep in mind budget constraints and good design principles. You'll probably find it easiest to name each board based on the assignment and scenario number (e.g. "B1 Scenario 1"). For each scenario, write a brief paragraph explaining your selections.

Your answers may be written in full sentences or in point form.

Scenario 1: Shoshana is hosting a baby shower for her younger sister and wants to achieve an ethereal, whimsical feel. The theme is Alice in Wonderland but she doesn't want the space to look too childish. Shoshana has suggested using muted yellow and soft, baby blue in the decor as her sister is having a baby boy – plus, both colors go well with the theme. Describe the flowers you recommend. You are working with a budget of $2,000, so you can incorporate a few more expensive flowers, but don't overdo it!

Scenario 2: Jasmine and Jeff are to be married in late fall and have decided to hold their wedding reception in a waterfront gazebo. To afford their dream venue, they've had to cut back elsewhere in the wedding budget. As a result, they have given you a fairly tight floral budget of $1,500 to work with. They want their color scheme to pull from fall's natural colors, so you'll be working with cranberry red and burnt orange along with any accent colors you see fit. They have also mentioned they're drawn towards rustic themes and would like to keep the cost of flowers low by incorporating alternatives.

Scenario 3: Yolanda, the manager of a major hotel, has hired you to decorate this year's masquerade ball. The event is held in the hotel's ballroom and you've been given a very large budget of $10,000. Her only requests are that you include feathers and that you "wow" the guests and have them talking about the floral arrangements all evening long. Recommend the types of flowers you think would provide the greatest impact.
